Piano & Composer Camp

“Papa Haydn”, as he has been affectionately called, created joyful music. We will explore the music in his time with fun activities, exciting ensembles and creative projects!

This camp gives the young music student an opportunity to explore and experience the life and times of a major composer in music history. Campers experience the composer’s life and music through singing, creative activities, keyboard solo and ensemble playing, rhythm ensembles, musical games and projects, and composing. Students present a “Mini concert” during the last day of camp.

Campers should be ages 7-12 and should have a level one competency in music reading and some basic keyboard skills.
